Pastor's Pondering
Pastor Jean M. Hansen

Thanks so much ... but how can this be??

The congregation's celebration of my 65th (how can this be??) birthday was such a blessing! Although I knew something was "up", there were so many wonderful surprises the morning of Sunday, September 3, an early celebration of "the day".

It was fun to see the orange balloons proclaiming my soon-to-be-age and the lovely fall decorations. The cake and fruit were delicious, and the game show (rigged??) was so fun, especially when interrupted by a commercial selling, can you believe it, indulgences!

The FLC-themed puzzles, with people's personal notes on the backs, were such a creative and personal gift – thank-you to all, and especially to those who made it happen!! When I put the puzzles together a few days later, one piece – right in the middle - was missing. DARN! I was going to ask our Property Manager, Beth Unk, to be on the look-out for it, but forgot to do so. I did leave the puzzle up, though, hoping that the piece would miraculously be found.

On my actual birthday, I walked into my office and was greeted by a table filled with flowers, cupcakes AND breakfast goodies, and cards. (Thank-you to staff members Nancy, David and Dineen) Among the cards was one from Beth which included birthday greetings and "the missing piece"! (She kept it on purpose, with encouragement from at least one Council member!) How fun that was! Now the puzzle is complete. It was a great birthday!

Yet ... I'll admit that turning 65 is, well, is a bit jolting, as is realizing that I have been a Pastor for 35 years. I do not feel old ... just older ... and I am reminded of that in various ways every day. (I know that for many of you reading this, the day you received your Medicare card is a distant, foggy memory ... but for me it still is a milestone of life.) Celebrating that milestone with my faith family made it a memorable and happy day. For that, and for all of you, I am SO grateful!!

Thank-you!!!

No one after lighting a lamp puts it under a bushel basket, but on the lamp stand, and it gives light to all in the house. ELCA DAY OF SERVICE AND FIRST SERVE

These two missions presented an unanticipated dilemma. We were in the position to promote participation in First Serve projects or conduct our own ELCA Day of Service projects, both of which were scheduled for Sunday, September 10. First Serve hosted its "Sending Off" service on the same morning as our favorite hymn special worship. Our approach was to perform work organizing donated items for DLM at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church immediately following our service, while also encouraging participation in the Sunday afternoon First Serve activities. Additionally, we were planning on assembling donated items for hygiene kits for Lutheran World Relief at a later date. However, due to illness (Darlene Anderson Katz was hospitalized) the DLM program was cancelled. We then shifted our focus and assembled the hygiene kits following our own service. Thanks to Judy Vernon for volunteering on-the-spot to coordinate this activity. Approximately 65 kits were prepared for the ELCA World Relief.

Hopefully, the overlapping of these programs can be avoided in the future.

Thanks to David Nevergall who volunteered to deliver the kits to the World Relief Office/Warehouse in Baltimore.

One of the afternoon projects First Serve offered was "Cultural Immersion: Market Tour Group."

This was a walk to Nepali markets, for a tour featuring a wide array of Asian foods and household items as well as a tour of a Nepali clothing store that also sells jewelry and religious items.

Hsa Win (left), Chandra Rau and Prabina Majhi (middle) and Su Aye (right) guided the tour and provided in depth commentary about customs, cuisine and fashion.

RECONCILING IN CHRIST (RIC)

On Saturday, August 26, Faith participated in the Akron Pride Festival. Our booth was open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and several of our members participated in hosting guests who stopped by our display. This included several children who very artfully colored bandanas. Keychains made by Faith youth, led by Em Antal and Eric Jezewski, were in the colors of LGBTQ+ flags and handed out at the booth.

Our Pride March Leader, Joe Antal, led Faith's group in the Equity March starting at 10 a.m.

RIC committee members are Nancy Tobar, Marilyn Wilson, Joe Gardner, Em Antal, and Dana Singer who all participated in this event. Following is a list of our other members and friends who marched and/or staffed our booth through the morning and afternoon of the festival:

FAMILY PROMISE

Our support for Family Promise-Glendora House includes supplying their residents with condiments that supplement their broader nutrition program. On a periodic basis we replenish their inventory with the following items:

Hot sauce, Ketchup, Italian dressing, Mayonnaise, Mustard, Ranch dressing

Donations may be placed in the "Family Promise" box located on the shelf in the hallway corridor or left with David Simpson, Outreach Coordinator.

Outreach

Many thanks to all the anonymous donors who help keep a steady flow of these things.

More information about Family Promise is available on their website <https://familypromise.org>. Here is a some information from that source:

We are there when a family's homelessness is imminent, and we work to avoid the trauma of a family losing their housing. Our Affiliates do this through:

- Case management and community support
- Rental assistance, security deposits
- Utility support
- Landlord mediation
- Housing location
- Transportation – gas cards, bus passes, and car donations

Keeping families out of shelters is good public policy and good fiscal policy. When families have lost housing and reach out to Family Promise, we provide alternatives to shelters, including:

- Temporary hotel/motel stays
- Payments for rent in arrears, security deposits
- Landlord mediation and housing location
- Creative solutions leveraging a family's strengths

WHEELCHAIR MINISTRY

Most of our work in this arena has been to assist with items collected by Art Kaufman's brother David for temporary storage in his Wadsworth warehouse. However, recently one wheelchair was donated directly to the outreach office by David Nevergall. Perhaps more such donations will be made by congregation members or their acquaintances.

LOADS OF FAITH

It is with great appreciation that we accept the $19K grant by the St. John/St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church Endowment Fund in support of this laundry ministry. Our service level continues to grow. In 2022, more than 900 people were served and more than 27,000 pounds of laundry was washed. During the first 6 months of this year, 658 people have been served and 28,000 pounds of laundry have been washed. Moreover, we expanded to a second laundromat (Wallhaven) this year. The following table displays expenses for the first half of 2023.

Dear Penny and Faith Lutheran Church,

Thank you for your donation of books to the Reach Out and Read program at Akron Children's Hospital. Through Reach Out and Read, pediatricians and pediatric nurse practitioners from the 38 Akron Children's Hospital Pediatrics offices and Locust Pediatrics, provide new, age-appropriate books to children ages 6 months to 5 years old during well-child visits and make suggestions on how to help children develop a love of books and reading. In 2022, Reach out and Read provided over 88,000 books.

Warmest regards,
Lindsay Riley

OCTOBER CHOICE The Innocent* by David Baldacci

America has enemies - ruthless people that the police, the FBI, even the military can't stop. That's when the U.S. government calls on Will Robie, a stone-cold hitman who never questions orders and always nails his target.

But Will Robie may have just made the first - and last - mistake of his career....

It begins with a hit gone wrong. Robie is dispatched to eliminate a target unusually close to home in Washington, D.C. But something about this mission doesn't seem right to Robie, and he does the unthinkable: He refuses to kill. Now, Robie becomes a target himself and must escape from his own people.

Fleeing the scene, Robie crosses paths with a wayward teenage girl, a 14-year-old runaway from a foster home. But she isn't an ordinary runaway - her parents were murdered, and her own life is in danger. Against all of his professional habits, Robie rescues her and finds he can't walk away. He needs to help her.

Even worse, the more Robie learns about the girl, the more he's convinced she is at the center of a vast cover-up, one that may explain her parents' deaths and stretch to unimaginable levels of power. Now, Robie may have to step out of the shadows in order to save this girl's life... and perhaps his own.

Does this sound intriguing? The Faith Book club will be discussing The Innocent and all of its twists and turns on Tuesday, October 17 at 2 p.m. in the Youth Room at Faith. Haven't read the book, come anyway and enjoy the lively discussion. If you have questions, contact Steve Thompson or Marilyn Wilson, Marilyn at (330) 608-8817, marsiewilson7@gmail.com, and Steve at (330) 666-5065, st53024@yahoo.com. We hope that you will be able to join us.

New Playground breaks ground in October

After a long wait, the plan is for removal of the current wooden playset to start in October. Meyers Design, an Akron-based playground equipment company that has done many local playsets, will begin removal of the old set and mulch to lay the groundwork for a new playset. This new set will have some of the same popular features (slides, tunnel) and some new and exciting features (farmers market playhouse, car for dramatic play). The rubber mulch will be brown and is coated to minimize staining of shoes and clothes. We are grateful for how well the wooden set has served our preschool. But constant repairs and rotting wood prompted us to plan anew. Thankfully an Ohio Stabilization Grant allowed us to afford a complete rehaul of the playset. Looking forward to hearing the children play!
